The sadners and sympathy of those attending were accentuated by the fact that Mrs Canty continues critically ill at her home, unconsciousness of the great aerrow that has come to her taree daugh-ters, who have received the most touching messages of condolence from friends far and near.

Mr. Canty's brothers, Daniel and John and his sister Mirs Josephine Canty, from Claremont, N. H., were in Norwica for the funeral. With characteristic sympathy and kindliness Sunday evening, before beginning his sermon at the Central Baptist church, Rev. Dr. Peter C. Wright of New York, formerly paster of the church, spoke in pesonal appreciation of Mr Canty's public service and nobility of caracter as he had long known of both. Various incidents and experiences were recalled by Dr. Wright as showing the manliness, generosity and thoughtfullness of Mr. Canty in his daily association wito the traveling public, his friendly aid to many in serrow or distress or perplexity. The spontaneous and heartfell tribute evi-dently met with the complete approval of all Dr. Wright's hearers and many
